On and after Monday, July 12, 1898, trains on the Jeffersonville Railroad will leave Louisville, Ky., as follows: Louisville, at 6:30 a. m., 10:30 a. m., and 10 p. m.; daily, Sundays excepted.

Close connections made by the 10:30 a. m. and 10 p. m. trains at Seymour, with trains on the Ohio and Mississippi R. R. for St. Louis, Memphis, Cairo, Jefferson City, Kansas, Quincy, and Keokuk, Iowa.

The 6:30 a. m. and 10 p. m. trains run through to Indianapolis, and form close connections with trains on the Terra Haute, Lafayette, Peru, Indianapolis, and Evansville Central Railroads, for all the principal cities in the East, West, and North.

The 6:30 a. m., 10:30 a. m. and 10 p. m. trains connect at Seymour with trains on the Ohio and Mississippi Railroad for Cincinnati.

The 10 p. m. train on Saturdays only goes to Seymour, where connections are made for Cincinnati and St. Louis.

One train on Sunday, at 10 p. m., running through to Indianapolis, connecting at Seymour for St. Louis and Cairo, also Cincinnati and the East, and at the depot in Jeffersonville, Ky., for the principal cities in the East, West, and North.

Only one change of cars between Louisville and Cincinnati, St. Louis or Chicago.

Baggage checked to the train running on the same date, thereby avoiding annoying Omnibus rides incidental to other routes ending from Louisville to the West and North.

Time as quick and fare as low as by any other route.

Through tickets and further information given at the Company's Office, No. 257 southeast corner of Main and Third streets, Louisville, Ky., or at the depot in Jeffersonville.
